

UNCAP Annual Conference – 17th September 2015

AGENDA

9.30 - 10.00	Coffee and registration*
10.00 - 10.10	Welcome to the Conference	Lord Mayor of Nottingham
10.10 - 10.20	Innovative technology and the health care market	Giuseppe Conti
10.20 - 11.20	Standardization and Health: Under the Microscope
	Services in a Next Generation Urban Environment	John Herring
	ETSI - Security and Dignity	Scott Cadzow
	India's Ageing Population: The need to adopt Technical Urban Planning for the future	Amruta Awachat
	OGC - Health and Interoperability	Eddie Oldfield
11.20 - 12.40	Innovative SMEs: A shot in the arm for the Health Market
	Involving SMEs in the Health Care Market	Wolfgang Kniejski
	Building an App	Giuseppe Conti
	Does your App Comply? Will it fit the Standards Arch?	Leonardo Plotegher
	Marketing your App: Capability and Interoperability	Scott Cadzow
12.40 - 14.00	LUNCH Please visit the Exhibition and see the technology
14.00 - 15.10	Is innovation alive and well in a technological world?
	The European procurement market	Giuseppe Conti
	Where am I? – Where are you? Tracking and navigation to support efficient social and health care	Stephen Fuller
	Environmental issues affecting the ageing population	Kathi Schleidt
	Healthcare for an ageing population, a Scottish perspective	Anne Wilson
15.10 - 15.40	Coffee and Networking
15.40 - 16.10	How can Standards organizations, small and medium sized enterprises and procurement organizations work together to ensure that people with cognitive impairment can continue to live with dignity and independence in an environment of their choosing?	Giuseppe Conti will lead a round table discussion
16.10 - 17.30	Parallel Sessions
	1. IMT (Innovation Management Team) meeting	Giuseppe Conti
	2. Training session for external companies: How to “program and extend” UNCAP with their solutions.	Raffaele Giaffreda

* please note, there is a registration fee of £30.00 which covers coffee breaks and lunch the evening dinner is £30.00 and is held in the Mercure Hotel